

For Immediate Release

“Kids Helping Kids”

Little Sprouts participates in gift drive for youth-run charity

Merrimack Valley, MA, Monday, December 17, 2007 – Even very young children can learn the lesson of giving and generosity. Students and their families at Little Sprouts Child Enrichment Centers are taking gift donations for Debbie’s Treasure Chest- a charity developed by three adopted girls’ ages 8, 11, and 12 which targets the “forgotten kids” in DSS custody. The preschoolers, toddlers and infants at Little Sprouts are working with their families, teachers, and the management team at Little Sprouts to collect as many items that they can to help support this local charity. “We are glad to be reaching out and supporting the community during the holiday season” commented Kate O’Connor, the Executive Director of Little Sprouts Andover location. To help Little Sprouts donate to Debbie’s Treasure Chest, please contact Jessica Todisco, the Community Outreach Specialist of Little Sprouts at jtodisco@littlesprouts.com.

About Little Sprouts Child Enrichment Centers

Little Sprouts Child Enrichment Centers have been leaders in exceptional early education and care since 1982, focusing on academic and the metacognition of children, teachers and families. From the beginning, Little Sprouts has been committed to creating a holistic experience for children, combining an enchanting atmosphere and scientifically based curriculum with an outstanding range of services. Little Sprouts centers include seven sites in Andover, Methuen, Lowell, Lawrence, Haverhill, Westford and Roxbury. For more information visit www.littlesprouts.com

About Debbie’s Treasure Chest

Debbie’s Treasure Chest is a charity founded by three adopted children who collect and distribute toys, clothing, and cosmetics for children associated with the Department of Social Services. Last year DTC distributed 6500 items to children at risk in the Merrimack Valley region. For more information go to www.debbiestreasurechest.org

For additional information, please contact:

Jessica Todisco, Community Outreach Specialist
Little Sprouts Child Enrichment Centers
(781) 929-2858
jtodisco@littlesprouts.com