Local Early Education Center Gives Back

Little Sprouts participates in food drive for local food pantry

Merrimack Valley, MA, Monday, November 5, 2007 – Little Sprouts Child Enrichment Center in Haverhill is giving back to the community by participating in a food drive to help support the Pettingill House. November 5th thru November 16th, Little Sprouts staff and families will work together to collect as many food items that they can to help support this local food pantry. Lori Joe, a employee of Little Sprouts for over two years has initiated this food drive to help support local families who are in need during the holiday season. “Hosting this food drive is just one small thing that we, as the community, can do to help others” commented Lori Joe. To help Little Sprouts donate to the Petingill House, contact Maureen Bly, the Executive Director of Little Sprouts in Haverhill, at mbly@littlesprouts.com.
